

Protection of your personal data

Updated: 07/02/2025

1 - Personal data processing for contact purposes

Paris Aéroport uses your personal data via this Extime Exclusive website in the legitimate interest of contacting you following your request. Your data will be kept for a maximum of 3 years after the last contact. It is used by the customer services teams, who may pass on your query to other teams as necessary.

Under applicable regulations, you have the right to access your data, to rectify or erase it, as well as the right to limit or oppose the processing of your data. You may also indicate what you would like to happen to your personal data in the event of your death.

To exercise these rights, please complete the form below:

You may also exercise your rights by submitting a request in writing to the Data Protection Officer at the following address:

Aéroports de Paris Data Protection Officer / Délégué à Protection des Données
1 rue de France
93290 Tremblay-en-France, France

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the French Data Protection Authority (Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés - CNIL).

2 - What cookies do we use?

While browsing the Extime Exclusive website, cookies are placed on your computer, tablet or mobile phone. These cookies are used to make browsing easier, to compile statistics with a view to optimising the performance of our site and to tailor content to your personal interests.

Cookies can only be used to identify you in very limited circumstances. They are stored on your Internet browser for a period that depends on the type of cookie (length of login session, one (1) month, one (1) year, etc.) and for a maximum of thirteen (13) months.

Aéroports de Paris SA asks for your agreement (consent) before using cookies. You can adjust your choices at any time.

The cookies used are as follows:

Cookies related to audience measurement: These cookies aim to improve the performance of the parisaeroport.fr website. They are used for statistical purposes and make it possible to analyse and measure the audience based on the information obtained relating to users' browsing.

Cookies used for A/B testing and personalising the services and information displayed: These cookies are intended to improve the user-friendliness of the parisaeroport.fr website. They enable us to conduct marketing and statistical tests (called A/B testing) during your visits. This type of cookies can also be used to customise your experience.

Cookies related to targeted advertising: These cookies allow us to display advertising content that corresponds to your personal interests on the parisaeroport.fr website.
